Healthcare's Economic Impact in North Central Florida

North Central Florida has a thriving healthcare industry that benefits the community. As we take a look at the expansion of healthcare facilities currently in operation and new facilities being built, we see the overall impact of the healthcare industry is directly linked to a successful economy in North Central Florida.

Area hospitals and healthcare systems are major employers in Gainesville, Ocala and the surrounding communities. In Alachua County, UF Health Shands, HCA Florida North Florida Hospital and Malcom Randall VA Medical Center are top employers for the region. Ocala metropolitan area major employers include HCA Florida Ocala Hospital, HCA Florida West Marion Hospital and AdventHealth Ocala. In Columbia County, HCA Florida Lake City and the Lake City VA Medical Center are major employers as well.

UF Health

UF Health's presence in North Central Florida is a major influence on the local economy. According to UF's most recent economic impact study, "UF Health contributes more than $4.6 billion to Florida's overall economy through direct and indirect expenditures. The clinical enterprise's direct employment and indirect spending account for 33,000 jobs." Over the past decade, the total revenue for the health center grew from $2.7 billion to $4.7 billion.

In early 2020, UF Health acquired The Villages Regional Hospital, now renamed UF Health The Villages Hospital. The hospital has 295 medical staff members and 1,036 employees. In February 2020, UF Health The Villages opened a new freestanding emergency room in order to provide residents with access to high-quality healthcare services. The modern, 25,000-square-foot ER is open 24/7, has 16 beds and offers laboratory, pharmacy and respiratory therapy services as well as diagnostic imaging.

UF Health has broken ground on a new $5.7 million urgent care center in East Gainesville. The UF Health Urgent Care Center - Eastside will include eight examination rooms, two procedure rooms, and an X-ray facility and is expected to open by mid-2024. City officials hope the area surrounding the urgent care center will become a medical, employment and retail hub for one of the city's most underserved areas.

families and visitors in the fast-growing Ocala area.”

Hospital and HCA Florida West Marion Hospital have also recently invested in several other projects designed to improve access to healthcare in the Ocala area.

HCA Florida Ocala Hospital has added 36 new inpatient beds including a 10-bed neuro ICU, 10-bed neuro step-down and a 16-bed general medical and surgical unit as part of a $65 million expansion. HCA Florida West Marion Hospital added an inpatient rehabilitation hospital and added two new operating rooms. Both hospitals also expanded their cath labs.

A new UF Health hospital is also in the works for Ocala at Northwest Blichton Road and Northwest 35th Avenue Road. Expected to open in Spring 2024, the 150,000-square-foot, three-story hospital will include 10 emergency department rooms, 10 inpatient rooms and four surgical operating rooms. The hospital's imaging center will include two X-ray rooms, two CT rooms, an ultrasound room and an MRI suite. The facility will also have an outpatient center for lab draws, an anesthesia pre-operative center and physician offices. The project will allow for room to expand in the future. The hospital will offer physical therapy and rehabilitation services at the UF Health Rehab Clinic - Ocala. “The new hospital is a natural addition that brings UF Health’s highly skilled physicians and sought-after health care to the heart of Marion County,” said David R. Nelson, MD, senior vice president for health affairs at UF and president of UF Health in a news release.

HCA Florida

To better serve the growing population of Marion County, HCA Florida Ocala Hospital has opened an $11 million freestanding emergency room. Recently opened in Winter 2023, HCA Florida Foxwood Emergency plans to serve more than 10,000 patients each year and employs 45 full-time healthcare professionals in addition to other support staff. It is equipped with 11 emergency exam rooms and offers CT scans, general X-rays and on-site laboratory services. This is HCA Florida Ocala Hospital’s fifth freestanding ER.

“HCA Florida Ocala Hospital is committed to serving the needs of our community and providing high-quality healthcare,” said Alan Keese, HCA Florida Ocala Hospital CEO in a press release. “With the construction of HCA Florida Foxwood Emergency, we will be able to expand access to healthcare services by providing state-of-the-art emergency care closer to home for the

A Destination for Healthcare: Medical Tourism in Gainesville and North Central Florida

The Greater Gainesville area is well known for its college town atmosphere and its quaint surrounding communities. However, North Central Florida's top-rated hospitals and healthcare systems have made this region a hub for medical tourism. Hospitals like UF Health Shands, UF Shands Children's Hospital and HCA Florida North Florida Hospital are among the top 100 hospitals in the U.S. The Malcom Randall Department VA Medical Center, one of the busiest VA medical centers in the nation, is highly ranked by the VA Institute and draws veterans and active-duty military members from all over.

Patients travel from all over the state of Florida, the U.S. and world to receive treatment at our area hospitals. The academic research, elite education and a successful bioscience industry allow hospitals and health systems to provide the latest advancements in treatment. The many nationally and internationally recognized physicians here in North Central Florida work diligently to make advances in modern medicine.

Medical tourism also has a positive impact on the North Central Florida economy. The direct economic impact comes through the income to hospitals and medical research grant funding. The indirect impact comes from the money travelers spend on hotels, dining, transportation, retail and visits to area attractions.

UF Health

UF Health's hospitals and healthcare centers are medical tourism's major driving force in North Central Florida. Area UF hospitals include UF Health Shands Hospital, UF Health Shands Children's

Hospital, UF Health Shands Cancer Hospital, UF Health Heart & Vascular Hospital, UF Health Neuromedicine Hospital, UF Health Psychiatric Hospital, UF Health Rehab Hospital and UF Health The Villages Hospital.

The health system is a leading provider of healthcare not only on a local scale, but nationally. Each year the UF Health network of hospitals and healthcare facilities have more than 3 million inpatient and outpatient visits, and serve patients from all 67 Florida counties, around the U.S. and more than 30 countries.

According to U.S. News & World Report, UF Health Shands Hospital and UF Health Shands Children's Hospital rank among the nation's best hospitals in numerous combined specialties for 2023-24.

UF Health Shands Children's Hospital provides high-quality, innovative care to children and families from across the state of Florida and more than 20 countries around the world. A leader in pediatric care, UF Health Shands Children's Hospital is nationally ranked No. 10 in diabetes and endocrinology, No. 24 in pulmonology and lung surgery, No. 26 in cardiology and heart surgery, and No. 35 in neonatology, according to the U.S. News & World Report rankings for 2023-24.

Another major draw for medical tourism in North Central Florida is organ transplants. UF Health Shands Transplant Center is an industry leader in transplant medicine, with more than 50 years of experience of performing lifesaving procedures to patients from across the world.

UF Health Shands' liver transplant program is ranked No. 1 in the nation by the Scientific Registry of Transplant Recipients. Its lung transplant program is in the top 10 nationwide and is a leader in developing COVID-related lung transplants. UF Health was the second hospital in the U.S. to start COVID lung transplants and has completed the most of any hospital. UF Health Shands is one of only 18 organizations that offer the XVIVO Lung Perfusion System, a cutting-edge technology that improves the viability of donated lungs, shortening the time for a transplant.

UF Health Shands' kidney transplant program has been recognized as the best in Florida and second best in the nation among 256 centers. The kidney-pancreas transplant program was also nationally recognized, with the third-highest metrics in waitlist survival, time to transplant and one-year organ survival, according to UF Health.

At the forefront of pediatric heart transplantation for more than 25 years, UF Health Shands Children's Hospital's pediatric heart transplant program is the transplant referral center for the most complex patients in and around the state of Florida. Its pediatric cardiologists and congenital heart surgeons are pioneers in heart transplantation for high-risk patients who cannot receive transplants at other centers.

VA Medical Centers

North Central Florida is home to two VA medical centers, the Malcom Randall Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Gainesville and the Lake City VA Medical Center in Lake City. Both hospitals are part of The North Florida/South Georgia Veterans Health System, which is ranked 15th best VA system out of 177 in the nation according to the VA Institutes as of 2019.

The North Florida/South Georgia Veterans Health System, the VA's largest healthcare system, serves more than 130,000 veterans. Malcom Randall VA Medical Center is also one of the five busiest VA medical centers in the country, with 40,000-50,000 outpatient visits each month and 12,000 in-patient admissions each year. Primary care and specialty health services include mental health, gastroenterology, optometry, hearing audiology, oncology, nutrition counseling and more.

Out-of-town families and caregivers of veterans receiving inpatient care at the Malcom Randall VA Medical Center can stay at the Gainesville Fisher House for free. To stay at the Fisher House, visitors must live 50-plus miles away or have a travel time of more than 2 hours.

Electronic Health Records and Direct Secure Messaging

In an increasingly paperless healthcare landscape, Electronic Health Record systems are transforming the way patients receive care. Also known as EHRs, these software systems are utilized by hospitals, healthcare facilities and other medical practices to treat patients more efficiently.

EHRs are digital records of a patient's overall health history. They consist of demographic information, lab reports, medications, allergies, immunizations, radiology reports and visits. EHRs may also include billing and insurance information. One of the great benefits of EHRs is their interoperability, meaning that they are designed to be shared with other healthcare organizations' systems. As a result, EHRs offer a broader picture of a patient's medical history, collecting information from every provider involved in a patient's treatment and care.

This access to a patient's complete medical history allows physicians to collaborate with other providers treating a patient. With access to a patient's EHR, physicians can instantly review a patient's medical records, lab tests and other important information.

EHRs also allow a patient's medical information to move with them to different specialists, labs, imaging centers, emergency rooms and pharmacies not only locally but nationally. Their digital health records are always updated to include the most up-to-date information so that healthcare providers can make more informed decisions.

Direct Secure Messaging and Secure Instant Messaging

Many EHR systems have a direct secure messaging component that allows physicians to communicate with one another. Direct secure messages (also known as direct exchange) use encrypted emails to exchange confidential health information across different EHR networks. This allows for HIPAA-compliant, encrypted transmission of Protected Health Information. Direct secure messaging is a better alternative to regular email since it does not have the inherent risks of being compromised or accessed by unauthorized users.

Direct secure messaging systems require access to a Health Information Service Provider, or HISP. Healthcare providers use their EHR software to locate a patient's health records that will be included in a direct secure message. Once the doctor is ready to send the direct secure message, the HISP validates the recipient's identity and provides a notification that the delivery was successful.

EHR vendors may also have an application that allows healthcare providers to send secure, real-time instant messages to colleagues in the same system. This can reduce or eliminate the need for outdated and inefficient pagers. Users can chat one-on-one or create group messages to discuss detailed patient information. Messages can even include photos and charts.

As the nation's largest EHR vendor, Epic is one of the top healthcare IT companies providing healthcare integration solutions. Its user-friendly design for healthcare applications makes apps easy to use. For more than 40 years, Epic has been developing software that keeps the patient at the center. More than 250 million patients currently have an electronic record in the Epic system. Epic is even used by most of the top hospitals ranked by U.S. News and World Report.

UF Health has been using Epic for all its EHRs, scheduling and billing since 2011. The health system uses EpicCare MyLink for its community physician portal. "This portal provides real-time web access to patient information, so physicians who practice at locations outside of UF Health can access patients' clinical data," according to the UF Health website. This keeps healthcare providers up to date on any changes to their patients' medical records. With EpicCare MyLink, physicians can easily view information in a patient's chart, including inpatient admissions or discharges, outpatient visits, lab results, demographics, allergies, medications and surgical history.

AdventHealth Ocala has also implemented Epic across all its facilities. "Our journey to become a consumer-focused clinical company requires a fully connected network throughout our entire enterprise," said Terry Shaw, president and CEO for AdventHealth. "Connecting our network with a robust, integrated health record platform gives our caregivers access to the clinical information they need at the point of care and ultimately advances our consumer promises through a more seamless experience for those we serve."

With Epic, health records are easily accessible regardless of the care setting in which a patient interacts with the health system, fostering greater efficiency and coordination. Epic's Community Connect program also allows AdventHealth to extend its EHR system to affiliated providers as part of the integrated platform. AdventHealth's mobile app is enhanced with Epic's supporting infrastructure and tools, such as MyChart. The transition to Epic comprises more than 1,200 care sites across the healthcare system and is expected to be fully complete in about three years.

"With Epic, health records are easily accessible regardless of the care setting in which a patient interacts with the health system, fostering greater efficiency and coordination."

HCA Healthcare area hospitals, including HCA Florida North Florida Hospital, HCA Florida Lake City Hospital, HCA Florida Ocala Hospital and HCA Florida West Marion Hospital, use PatientKeeper for all EHR needs. "PatientKeeper will revolutionize the accessibility of critical information throughout HCA Healthcare while improving quality, enhancing regulatory compliance, connecting physicians and facilities across our healthcare system, and ultimately ensuring that the communities we serve receive the best possible care," according to HCA Florida Healthcare.

There are options for you if you are not ready to give up practicing medicine and are not ready to retire. When your medical license is placed in retirement status, you are prohibited from practicing any form of medicine. Yet, if your license is converted to a limited license status, you can still practice medicine on a volunteer basis to provide uncompensated care for low-income residents. A limited license is restricted to areas of critical need. Since physicians are working without compensation under the limited license status, license renewal fees are waived.
